

AL-ASMA' AL-HUSNA

The 99 Names of Allah

أَسْمَاءُ اللَّهِ الْحُسْنَى

"And to Allah belong the most beautiful names, so call upon Him by them."

Qur'an, Al-A'raf 7:180

"Allah has ninety-nine names, one hundred less one. Whoever preserves them will enter Paradise."

Sahih al-Bukhari 2736 · Sahih Muslim 2677

How to use this set

1

Three names a week

Learn the Arabic, the meaning and one way it touches your life.

2

Call on Him by them

Begin your du'a with the name that fits it: Ar-Razzaq when asking for provision, Al-Ghafur when asking forgiveness.

3

Track your journey

Tick each name on the last page as you learn it and again when you have it by heart.

About this list. The names are given in the order of the well-known list narrated in Jami' at-Tirmidhi 3507. Scholars have discussed this list and its chain, while the hadith of the ninety-nine names itself is authentic in al-Bukhari and Muslim. Translations are brief and cannot capture the full meaning of each name.
